YOUR CIVIC CENTER . . .

by Horrace Kanno

Your Civic Center, a merchant of community goodwill, has a rich historical background. Many of us, who logistically call the Key Peninsula home, are strangers to the events, efforts and players that made and continue to make that property a gathering place, that can give the greatest happiness to a greater number.

The luxury of doing good can be enjoyed by the clubs, guilds, associations, groups, boards, or any organization that hold meetings or assemblies that frame their community. The young, like the Scouts and skaters, can enjoy their moment of togetherness. The dancers, whether squared or with twilite as an indicator, can also enjoy that moment. Those with the discipline for good health can enjoy aerobics and those with the discipline of the art can enjoy their Dojo of Karate. The Food Bank is housed there. The bridge players shuffle on Tuesdays. The Seniors have a lunch bunch on Thursdays and the worthy Cootiettes, the 4-H'ers and the Veterans hold space on the calendar. There are receptions, banquets, breakfast and dinners that either celebrate, honor or raise funds for worthy causes. All these events, affairs and classes reflect an impression on the human body and spirit.

Many people gave and give their spirit and bodies to maintain the Center as a place where the citizens of the community can gather and enjoy. Now that we've voted down those funding issues, that could have helped, the chore is harder.

We can call ourselves lucky. But the word lucky is a derivative of chance. To keep our good-fortune going in the right direction we all must make an effort, in unity and harmony, to keep the facility a community center. Somebody like me.

911 CORRECTION

by Hugh McMillan

The headline to the article on page 14 of the December edition of the Key Peninsula News reads: "Emergency 911 Begins January 1985."

That headline is WRONG! The article is correct. It explains that in January 1985, your Key Peninsula Fire Department will no longer be handling emergency dispatch. The article also explains that, "You will continue to place all emergency calls over 884-2161 or 857-2311 and that the E-911 dispatch system will be instituted in September/October 1985." Please DO NOT use the 911 number. Use 884-2161 or 857-2311 until notified otherwise.

WHAT YOUR ACCOUNTANT SHOULD HAVE TOLD YOU

A free seminar will be presented in the Gold Room at the Civic Center on Tuesday, January 8 at 7:30 p.m. Financial Consultant Bill Drollinger will talk about tax reduction through the use of tax advantaged investments.

Highlights are: How to receive tax-free dividends and tax-free interest, how to make Uncle Sam your partner when investing, how to use your life insurance as a tax shelter, how to use your children as a tax shelter, the absolute minimum tax you have to pay, and most importantly, what to do with your IRA.

A broad range of investment tools will be covered.

BINGO REPORT

We paid Kathy Carson a $500 jackpot on December 5. This was with only 46 people in attendance. We know there are problems with heat and we may discontinue Bingo during the month of January, depending on attendance. There definitely will be no bingo on January 2, 1985.

We hope everyone who won the extra prizes on December 19 is pleased. We would like to pay larger prizes but we are trying to keep the cost of cards as low as possible and we need more attendance before we can pay out more in prizes.

We still believe a new chairman could help bingo. Please volunteer your services. Thanks to all of you for your attendance and support during 1984. Thanks also to all of the loyal helpers and callers. You make my job much easier.

RETAILER OF THE YEAR

by Janice McMillan

Walt Schmidt, of Walt's Fine Foods, Key Center, received the Gig Harbor/Peninsula Chamber of Commerce award as retailer of the year 1984. At the Chamber of Commerce meeting held in November, Schmidt was announced as the recipient of the important award.

Tony Tebeau, President of Gig Harbor/Peninsula Chamber of Commerce spoke of Schmidt's contributions to the betterment of the community and his willingness to improve and enlarge his store in order to improve service for his customers. Walt Schmidt's many contributions to the community are not widely known, but he does have the reputation of being "the man who can't say no".

A Puget Sound National Bank money machine was opened at the Key Center store in December and there is a strong possibility of other banks adding their machines to the store.

Stop by the store and look for the plaque on the front of Walt's Fine Foods. We are proud to have the award winner in our community.

Mr. Fisher and I made the deal one evening as we sat around a campfire across the Skykomish River from Goldbar, Washington. It was 1926. I now owned an automobile! Cousin Ed Paul was the witness. I was 18.

Ed and I were camping under a piece of canvas, barely earning enough to eat on, picking swordfern for Mr. Fisher. That was our first experience in the evergreen business. Frank Fisher had grubstaked us at first, until we were able to pick enough ferns to support ourselves, not well, but sort of.

My "new" car was a topless model T-Ford, homemade "bug", probably a 1915 model. No starter and barely enough room to squeeze two people into it's narrow, torpedo shaped body. Located way down at Mr. Fisher's Ravenna place, it was all mine, but I could not take possession until we quit work at Goldbar, during the new fern growing season. Valued at $20, it about covered my wages due.

Ed and I left Ravenna early. Neither of us could drive, so I was elected as it was my car. Ed cranked the motor as needed, which was often. We were headed for 2029 E. 36th Street, Tacoma, where my parents lived and we could get a meal or two.

Luckily there was a shoulder along the old road between Seattle and Tacoma. We used it most all the way as our own private road. Crossing cross streets was hazardous. The bug often stopped and had to be cranked, with vigor, even in front of a streetcar, once. The streetcar waited patiently until we got going.

Somewhere along the way I invested nearly my last $2.00 in a "Hotshot" battery. With the Hotshot, our engine did not die as often as it had on it's built-in magneto ignition system.

Keeping the engine running was the number one problem, but we had four others, namely the tires. When the first one blew I got onto the shoulder and chugged slowly along. We had nothing to fix a tire with. Eventually all the tires were flat but we dared not stop. Motorists would kindly drive alongside and tell us we had a flat. "Thanks, we know it."

Home at last, I studied Sears catalog and learned about tire boots, tire irons, cold patching materials and so on. Eventually brother Sid and I got all four tires booted up, pumped full of air and we were ready to travel.

Sid was an experienced driver, he said. He took off down the street, made a left turn and met an oncoming car and passed it on a bridge that was about wide enough for two coaster wagons. I began to have doubts about his driving experience. Later he admitted that was his solo flight.

That bug was better than walking, when it ran, but it sure was hard to push!

KMPS STUDENTS IN "ANNIE"

Two KPMS students, Erin and Kalyn Foster are participating in the Performance Circle's presentation of "Annie". The play will run from December 13 through January 5 in Gig Harbor.

Erin and Kalyn spent many evenings prior to December 13 rehearsing for the opening night. Says Kalyn, "The hours aren't great, but performing makes it worth it."

There are still a few days left to see the play. If you are interested call 851-PLAY.

KPMS is proud of Erin and Kalyn!

$100 REWARD

Early in the morning on November 17, actually about 2:00 a.m., some people in a white or yellow Jeep truck, created a disturbance on Greenwood Place near Lake Minterwood. The truck motor runs heavily, making a lot of noise as if it needed a muffler and the license was not illuminated.

On leaving the area, the people in the truck stopped long enough to destroy several traffic signs at the entrance to the Lake Minterwood residential area. A $100 reward has been posted by the Key Peninsula Lions Club for information leading to the arrest and conviction of anyone destroying traffic signs. The reward is still available and can be obtained by those who know the culprits in this case.

The Key To A Healthier Peninsula

A Woman's Heart

by Elaine Forch

The month of January has never been a favorite of mine. It always seems to go on forever. The days are so dark and dreary—almost as dreary as our budget which is usually suffering the devastation of the "Christmas splurge". The house feels so bare once we have taken down our Christmas decorations and stored them away for another year. Someone in the family is sure to be down with a cold or the flu. My spirits used to sink like a bride's biscuits. Once I discovered that January was very faithful and came around every single year, I decided to change the way I felt about this long, dreary month.

This was really easier than it sounds. I did some checking and discovered many great classes that start up in January, so many that now I'm afraid I'll never get to them all. It's also a good time to start on a home improvement project, paint, wallpaper or plan a new decorating scheme for a room that needs a facelift.

January is the perfect time to really take a good look at your body and plan needed adjustments in your diet and exercise regime. For me, it always seems better to make small changes every year. I can handle a small change where I could never stick with a major overhaul. I figure in twenty years I will be skinny and beautiful and 60 years old!

There are peaceful evenings to be spent in front of the fire with a good book or working on a handmade quilt. It is a great time to bake homemade breads and soups! The wonderful smells cheer up the whole family. January is a good time to clean closets and update your wardrobe. A rainy January Saturday is just the day to get out the Monopoly game and beat the socks off your husband.

January is a new beginning, the start of many wonderful things. It is a new chapter with all the pages yet to be filled. I choose to fill them with loving, growing, and learning moments. I want to be a better person than I was last year and January is the perfect time to begin.

LIONS CLUB

The pancake breakfast put on by the K.P. Lions on December 2 was well attended. About 250 people went through the breakfast line, many of which praised the operation. Some very pleased breakfasters sent their compliments to the chef. Lion Rhys Wood was the breakfast chairman who organized the whole affair, ably assisted by Lion John Farrell who was the chef in charge. All the food served came from Walt's Pine Foods.

The Club cleared about $400 which will be used for food baskets to be distributed on the Key Peninsula at Christmas time through the Community Services Group.

Among the guests at the breakfast were Sally Cornman, the Lions Citizen of the Year; Mike Salatino, President of the Civic Center and his wife, Joyce; Henry and Eleanor Stock; Margo Fleming and family; Keith and Lee Stiles; Mac and Billie McKinney; Sandy Newhouse and her two daughters; and a goodly number of Lions from other clubs, including Darryl Erickson from Peninsula Lions and his wife, Alice; Bob Angster of Gig Harbor Lions and his wife, Margaret; King Lion David Chapple of North Mason; Brownie Braunsteiner of Lincoln Lions; and Pat Morneault and Joe McClanning of Tacoma South Lions.

Many contributed to the success of the affair starting with the Civic Center Association who provided the hall free of charge; members of the K.P. Boy Scouts and the K.P. 4-H club who helped with the bussing and coffee refills and also acted as backup kitchen help. Many of the Lion's Ladies pitched in to help and all the Lions who could be there helped to put the show on the road.

To all who helped and to all who came to breakfast, the Lions Club wishes to extend a hearty "thank you" and HAPPY NEW YEAR.

EULOGY FOR ELMER OLSON (1896 - 1984)

Elmer Olson never picked up his paycheck for the labors in life that he did for others. Did he forget? He never expected it. Did we forget? He never prospected it. The question is will we remember?

Elmer Stanley Olson, 88, of Vaughn, died December 1 at a Tacoma Hospital of complications due to injuries recieved in a car accident.

He was the son of Washington Territory pioneers from Sweden (Andrew and Ellen Olson) and was born December 5, 1896 in the Olson homestead on Vaughn Glencove hill and was a lifetime resident of the Key Peninsula. He graduated from Vaughn High School at Vaughn. He attended Bellingham Normal School at Bellingham, now Western Washington University.

Elmer married Elsie May Bill, of Vaughn, March 6, 1922. Mr. Olson owned and operated "Sunny Crest Farms" at Key Center and was involved in poultry, dairying, berries, Christmas Trees, and logging operations on the peninsula.

Elmer was a member and Elder of Vaughn Community Church, founded Elmer was a member and Elder of Vaughn First Christian Church and a charter member and Elder of Vaughn Community Church, founded in 1947. Elmer was also a charter member and first secretary of the Upper Sound Grange # 705; he was a charter member and first Master of Peninsula Pomona#60. He was a member of the State and National Granges and had, in July, completed his 65th year as a granger. He served on the Board of Directors of the Peninsula Light Company for 40 years.

Elmer also acted as a member of the school board in both Glen cove District and Union High School-- he served during the years which saw the construction of the new high school at Vaughn which is now the Civic Center.

For some years, he was president of the Kitsap Dairmen's Association, and he was active in many other organizations on the Peninsula.

Elmer is survived by Elsie, his wife of 62 years; by 2 sons, Dr. Edmund Olson of Olympia and Donald Olson of Key Center; by 3 daughters Phyllis Anker of Vaughn, Joyce (Mrs. Charles) Niemann of Key Center and Gail Sparks of Long Beach, California. There are 17 grandchildren and 20 great-grandchildren, with numerous nieces and nephews. Also surviving him are his brother, Walter Olson of Home, and 2 sisters, Mrs. Angie Froelich of Belfair and Edith Olson of Gridley, Kansas

The day Elmer was put on this earth was the day he was taken from it. December 5th.

This may never get anyone new to volunteer their services for their community but it should make us appreciative of those who did and of those who do. Someone like Elmer Olson.

EVERGREEN BOOSTERS

by Jeannie Sagle

Evergreen Boosters will hold its January meeting on the 14th of the month at 7:00 p.m. Anyone interested is encouraged to come and bring a friend. There are three great doorprizes with extra chances given to those who bring friends. Bring a dessert and share it with others following the meeting. Excellent babysitters are provided to play with and watch your children.

At this meeting our annual school carnival will be the main topic for our business meeting. This year our carnival will be held on February 8 at Evergreen from 6:00-9:00 p.m. If you feel like being a part of the carnival in any way, you may call Cheryl Giuntoli at 884-3363. It is always lots of fun and very rewarding to participate in the carnival. Our proceeds will go toward purchasing new playground equipment.

After our business meeting we will have a special presentation by Eris Aasland. Eris is one of our volunteer classroom helpers at Evergreen. She is a retired grade school teacher and is now substituting in our district. She also takes time to help out in the Evergreen classrooms as a volunteer. Volunteers can be a tremendous help to teachers and many more of them are needed. Eris has put together some ideas to help volunteers feel more at ease when working with students. This is an excellent opportunity to gain some skills in the classroom from an experienced teacher and volunteer.

Please come and be a part of the exciting happenings at Evergreen this year.

This is an excellent opportunity for children to learn about the library, to experience being with other children in a group setting, to participate in games and plays, and to hear some of the finest children's stories.

Library Hours:

Tues. & Wed. 1:00-8:30 p.m.
Thurs. & Fri. 1:00-6:00 p.m.
Saturdays 12:00-4:00 p.m.
Sun. & Mon. Closed

The library will be closed Tuesday, January 1, New Year's Day.

POPULAR FICTION PROGRAM

Frank Weihs of the English department at Tacoma Community College will discuss "Popular Fiction of the 80's" at the Key Center Library, Wednesday, January 9 at 7:00 p.m. The program is sponsored by the Friends of the Key Center Library and is free to the public.

Mr. Weihs will examine popular fiction of the last five years, noting significant trends, in contrast with bestselling fiction of the past. For example, he has observed that interest in fantasy and mystery fiction set in medieval times has increased in recent years. The discussion will include an examination of specific authors, and in addition, will tell us not only what the contemporary reader is looking for, but something about the contemporary reader.

The Friends of the Key Center Library will hold their regular meeting following the program.

ABOUT YOUR MONEY

by David C. Barton, Financial Planner

Q. Is there a general set of rules to follow for personal financial planning?

A. Professional Financial Planning most often involves an approach on an individual, customized basis, however, here is a general strategy for successful money management and financial security.

1. BASIC REQUIREMENTS - Emergency liquid savings in an amount equal to three months living expenses should be kept in a money market mutual fund or other high-yielding, liquid savings vehicle. A reasonable budgeting structure should be adhered to, rather than unbridled spending and over-indulgence in credit. Adequate and simple insurance coverage should be maintained in the areas of home, auto, life, health and disability. These three important requirements are essential for a healthy foundation for financial security.

2. PERSONAL RESIDENCE - Purchasing a personal residence can be a positive step upwards toward financial independence. The available tax benefits and appreciation potential are important considerations. The tax benefits of a personal residence are realized in features such as interest payment deductions and long term capital gains treatment upon sale.

3. INVESTMENT DIVERSIFICATION - With the basic requirements and a personal residence as a sound foundation, you can begin to put dollars away for personal objectives.

Putting "all your eggs in one basket" is not a recommended saving and investment practice. In our unstable and politically manipulated economic environment, the individual or business must wisely diversify their investment portfolio so as to be protected from a loss in one particular economic area by the stability or gains in another.

Proper selection and diversification of investments coupled with the mapping out of personal objectives such as retirement needs, college funding requirements for children, or opening your own business can provide you with the most direct route between your present financial situation and the realization of financial independence.

4. ESTATE PLANNING - As we build our wealth over the years we will require some degree of protection from estate and gift taxation as well as a plan to efficiently transfer our accumulated assets to our heirs or beneficiaries. This can be an extremely complicated matter which, in most cases, will require more than the drafting of a simple will.

As a general strategy, the above suggestions can be used as an outline for an orderly achievement of financial independence. The importance of these areas of financial planning cannot be stressed enough, and the use of professionals such as financial planners, attorneys, and professional accountants can only help to streamline and refine the entire wealth building and maintaining process.

At Home on the Range

by Janice McMillan

This month I had planned to give you a lovely recipe for chicken breasts which I devised, but a Christmas card from old friends on Thalia Island, Va. included this recipe from CBS's Charles Kuralt's father who is an accomplished cook and retired in Nags Head, N.C. The recipe comes from an old Shaker recipe book.

APPLE CUSTARD PIE

9" deep-dish pie crust (unbaked)
5 egg yolks
4 egg whites (lightly beaten)
1 1/2 c sugar
3/4 c melted butter
3 T lemon juice
1 T grated lemon peel
1 t cinnamon
1/2 t nutmeg
2 1/2 c firm apples, sliced thinly

Brush pie shell with left-over egg white beaten. Beat together all other ingredients except apples. Place apples in uncooked pie shell, pour custard mixture over apples and bake at 400 degrees for 10 minutes. Reduce heat to 325 degrees and continue baking for 50 minutes or until custard is set.

LEMON CLOUD PIE

This heavenly creation was given to Mr. Kuralt by his 86 year old aunt. She had taken it from her mother's cookbook.

9" pie shell (see instructions below)
egg white (slightly beaten)
1 c sugar
1 c water
2 slightly beaten egg yolks
1/4 c cornstarch
1 T grated lemon rind
4 oz cream cheese
2 egg whites

Note: In making pie shell dough use 1 t grated lemon rind and 1 T lemon juice in place of 1 T of the water. Brush pie shell with egg white and bake at 450 degrees for about 10 minutes or until golden brown. Combine 3/4 c sugar, water, egg yolks, cornstarch and lemon in saucepan and cook over medium heat until thick, stirring constantly. Remove from heat and add cheese. Blend well. Cool while preparing meringue from egg whites and remaining 1/4 c sugar. Fold stiff meringue into cooled lemon mixture. Spoon into cooled pie shell. Chill 2 hours.

I have tried both of these recipes and they are, indeed, very good. The Apple Custard pie would be especially good served with vanilla ice cream. I made a couple of changes in the recipes as they were sent to me. I cooked the custard pie at least ten minutes longer than the 40 minutes called for in the original. The lemon pie dough called for up to 1/3 c lemon juice in place of water, but this made a very sour crust. I also think that chilling longer (I chilled it 4 hours) improved the firmness.

Restaurant Guide

By Janice McMillan

John Farrell, who owns Engine House No. Nine in Tacoma and was formerly connected with the Huckleberry Inn, has opened a new restaurant in Gig Harbor on Kimbal Drive, Pioneer Plaza (near the Texaco Station). The name of the new place is John's Breakfast, Burgers and Pies and it is just what it sounds like, a fast food restaurant. However, it is a fast food place with a very pleasant difference. The first difference that strikes your eye when you go in is the glass revolving pie case filled with wonderful looking pies ($1.25 a slice) that are baked in the restaurant. Next to this revolving case is another glass case that contains frosted brownies (big pieces) to melt the resolve of any chocolate lover and large yummy looking cinnamon rolls ($.95).

The decor of the restaurant is the second thing that really impressed me. Tones of grey and burgundy are used for a subtle and elegant impression. Burgundy tables, large attractive upholstered banquettes and carpeted floors make for pleasant dining. The light is very good from large windows and a white ceiling.

The breakfast menu (6:00-11:00 a.m.) includes steak 'n eggs, breakfast sandwiches on English muffins and pancakes, ham, bacon, hashbrowns, etc. Prices are $1.09 to $4.95 for the steak 'n eggs. These items are prepared on the grill next to the ordering counter.

Burger prices are very reasonable. A bacon and cheese quarter pounder is $2.29. They also have chicken and fish sandwiches and french fries (one size, .65).

I had the bowl of chili with cheese and onions ($2.00), which was the special of the day. It was very good, homemade not canned, and a little more than I could eat. I also had the "single bowl" from the Salad Bar ($1.59, "all you can eat" is $2.99). The Salad Bar had the usual assortment of items plus potato salad and cole slaw which were both made there. I enjoyed my salad.

The menu also includes Special Dinners from $5.95 to $7.95 and includes salad bar and french fries. The choice varies from New York steak to prawns, halibut and sirloin.

John's Breakfast, Burgers and Pies features Horluck's ice cream. They have take home hand-packed ice cream, sundaes and cones as well as pie a la mode for $1.95.

CONCLUSIONS: John's Breakfast, Burgers and Pies is very attractive, shiny clean and a pleasant place to dine. The food shows care beyond what you expect in a "fast food" place. Try it, I am sure you will like it.

HEALTH CENTER HAPPENINGS

With the New Year the Health Center is planning new programs for 1985. Our first project is a support group for caregivers of patients with Alzheimers Disease and other forms of dementia. Providing 24 hours a day care for an elderly adult is always a demanding job. When the caregiver is older as well, and the patient is frail or demented, that job can become unbearable. Studies show that the physical and mental health of the caregiver usually suffers under this strain. In order to help learn ways to deal with this stress and share the common experiences we will be starting a support group at the Center on January 9 at 1:00 p.m. Chris Piatt, a Geriatric Mental Health Worker from Tacoma Comprehensive Mental Health will be leading the discussions, and Dr. Roes will be giving short talks on the medical aspects of the diseases the caregiver is dealing with. We've set this up to correspond with the last hour of our Respite Care group, so the affected spouse could be left there during the meeting. Dr. Roes will be speaking about Alzheimers Disease on the 9th of January at 1:00 p.m., so if you're a caregiver or just interested, please come down to the Health Center.

In February, the Health Center will begin to look into senior housing in our community. A community meeting will be held at the Center on February 7 at 7:30 p.m. Look for more information next month. In the meantime, have a HAPPY NEW YEAR!!

KEY PENINSULA MIDDLE SCHOOL

The second group of recognition awards have been given at Key Peninsula Middle School by the Cougar Pride School Improvement Process Committee. The students of the month, chosen for their helpfulness and consideration of others are seventh grader Crissy Skladany and eighth grader Mike Dukeshier. Mr. Rick Selfors, who teaches industrial arts at KPMS, was chosen teacher of the month because of his ever-present positive attitude and school pride which rub off on the students and other staff members. Myron "the bus driver" Knudson was chosen as community helper of the month for his caring and concern for the success of "his" kids. Chosen parent volunteer of the month was Sandy Newhouse because of all her work in striving for the betterment of KPMS.

ANGELS DRAW THE LINE

Where does pleasure end and business begin? For the Angels of the Angel Guild this is a tough decision constantly challenging them.

Thirty-seven strong, they banded together (with their husbands) to kick off the holiday season at a buffet dinner held at Ole's house on December 10. If that's a preview of life in heaven, I'm all for it.

Six Mr. Angels, Don Olson, Ken McDowell, and the Home Musketeers, Bill Smith, Bob and Al Champlain, and Stan Stemp were thanked and honored for moving the storage building and new lock-up addition. You will find these for your drop-off donations behind the Thrift Shop at the KC Corral.

Angel, Lois Harvey, has crocheted a beautiful afghan that was raffled off to some very luck person on December 20. Hot cider and cookies were served that day to visitors.

All the Angels join to wish you all the happiest and most prosperous New Year ahead. They invite you drop off your donations either on the storage building porch or in the lock-up any day and hour. To shop, come on any Thursday, Friday or Saturday from 10:00-4:00. Watch the store windows for unadvertised sales or call the shop at 884-9333 on days open.

Get a 60-minute KIS® that lasts a lifetime.

The best way to save your memories is with snapshots. And the best way to have your film processed is to bring it to (store name). We've got the revolutionary new KIS Photo Processor. It takes your 110, 126, 135 and disc film and in just 60 minutes gives you picture-perfect prints. Extra prints and enlargements take just minutes. CHIROPRACTIC HEALTH TIPS

BY Dr. Robert Campbell

BACK SURGERY

How often I have heard the story that "nothing but surgery can cure your back." That would probably be true if the surgeon was the only type of doctor there was. Let's set the story straight.

A study by the Health Maintenance Organization (HMO) group gave a trial period to chiropractic in Florida recently. Approximately 1/3 of the patients referred were scheduled for surgery (the only thing that could cure the back problem.) Of those scheduled for surgery, 91% were able to get excellent results using chiropractic care. According to 1981 statistics, this would be a savings in that HMO group must be screened by a chiropractor first to see if more conservative (and less expensive) care through chiropractic can be utilized.

It seems obvious with surgery bills approaching the $80,000 mark according to the insurance industry, that this trend (chiropractic screening) will continue to grow.

If you have been told the "surgery is the only cure for your back," consider getting a second opinion from a chiropractor. If you have pain but don't know where to begin, again begin with the most conservative approach-- chiropractic, you'll probably be glad that you did.

REMEMBER: There are two factors to every health problem: Symptoms and Causes. Symptoms are the body's alarm system telling you that a problem (or Cause) exists. Remove the Cause and the Symptoms will disappear. Cause, the true culprit, is what's transmitting the warning (or symptom.)

Spinal bone pressure on your nerves can cause back and leg pain, numbness, headaches and that run down feeling. The CAUSE, not the symptom, has to be treated and corrected before you can get well and stay healthy. Once the cause is eliminated the symptoms will disappear naturally with no outside interference. For further information call 884-2144.

KEY PENINSULA SENIOR SOCIETY

by Thelma Gill

In keeping with our new and revised By-laws, we are also changing the heading on our monthly article. Formerly Silver Threads, we will be known as the Key Peninsula Senior Society.

And so it is time for New calendars on display, new dreams to come our way, our chance for a new day, May this be a better year and not just a replay. We hope to say in 1985 it is great to be alive.

January 3 we will serve our men and have our business meeting. January 10 our tootsies get treated great. January 17 our blood pressure is read. January 20 let's have fun, with no real plans. January 31 we remember those born this month and have our recycle day.

Winnie Smith and crew had a successful Arts and Crafts Show. It was a sold-out house for tables. Our newlyweds, the Carl Shields, will take a motor trip to California.

Welcome home Dick and Helen Kasper, going is so much fun, but being back with friends is the GREATEST.

There are more trips to Reno in the planning. The current price for a trip is only $139.00, the company is great and the fun is true Serendipity.
